FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE CONTINENTAL GROUP APPOINTS ASSOCIATE GENERAL COUNSEL

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. – (January 31, 2008) – The Continental Group, the largest property management company in Florida, has announced the appointment of Andrea Braverman as associate general counsel.

Braverman joins Continental from Conroy, Simberg, Ganon, Krevans, Abel, Lurvey, Morrow & Schefer in Hollywood, where she focused on construction litigation, representing developers, condominium associations, design professionals, contractors and subcontractors since August 2006. Prior to that, she handled commercial and residential real estate transactions for Braverman Hodes in Fort Lauderdale and a variety of large scale construction litigation cases at Daniels, Kashtan, Downs, Robertson & Magathan in Coral Gables.

Braverman earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law and received her bachelor's degree from the University of Texas in Austin.

Braverman is a member of the Florida Bar and is involved in several organizations including the Miami Dade County Bar Association and the Greater Miami Jewish Federation. She provides pro bono services for foster children through Lawyers for Children and was awarded the John Edward Smith Child Advocacy Award for her work with the organization. She also is a Project Sunshine volunteer.

Founded in 1990, The Continental Group's corporate headquarters is located in Hollywood, Fla. It also has regional offices in Kendall, West Palm Beach and Orlando. The company is the largest manager of multifamily rental communities and condominium and homeowner associations in the state, and one of South Florida's leading private sector employers. Guided by its Florida focus, the company has grown to exceed $270 million in annual business with 6,000 full-time employees. Today, The Continental Group manages and maintains more than 1,200 condominium and homeowner associations in Florida, representing over 250,000 residential units.
