THE CONTINENTAL APPOINTS SENIOR REGIONAL DIRECTOR AND LOOKS TO INTENSIFY HIGH RISE PORTFOLIO

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – (July 27, 2009) – As part of their strategy to expand operations in the Tampa Bay and surrounding areas, The Continental Group, the largest property management company in Florida, has named Corinne Duroure Senior Regional Director.

Duroure a native from Buffalo, New York and a seasoned community association manager will be responsible for growing the high-rise division in the North Region as well as a portfolio of sited condominiums in the Tampa Bay area.

“We are very excited to have someone like Corinne to share her knowledge and expertise,” commented Regional President Mark Stoops. “With over 25 years of experience to include the management of 16 high rise projects, Duroure currently oversees one of our premier properties – Signature Place,” added Stoops.

“At The Continental Group, we are passionate about going above and beyond expectations and introducing new standards of quality, which are very much in line with what our developer clients, residents and guests demand from a Continental managed property,” commented Duroure.

Founded in 1990, The Continental Group’s corporate headquarters is located in Hollywood, Fla. It also has regional offices in Boca Raton, Destin, Jacksonville, Jupiter, Kendall, Orlando and St. Petersburg. The company is the largest manager of multifamily rental communities and condominium and homeowner associations in the state, and one of South Florida’s leading private sector employers. Today, The Continental Group manages and maintains more than 1,500 condominium and homeowner associations in Florida, representing over 310,000 residential units.
