THE CONTINENTAL GROUP RECEIVES CHILD ADVOCACY AWARD

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. – (May 01, 2009) – The Continental Group, a locally-based property management company, recently was honored with the John Edward Smith Child Advocacy Award by Lawyers for Children America, Inc. (LRCA) at a luncheon at the Intercontinental Hotel in Miami.

Continental was selected for its generous contributions to the Voices for Children Annual Toy Drive as well as its commitment to “makeover” a Miami foster home.

“The Continental Group is committed to helping underprivileged youth succeed in any way we can,” said Tom Roses, president of The Continental Group. “We are proud to continue supporting Voices For Children, which dedicates itself to helping abused and neglected children.”

The award is named in honor of the late John Edward Smith, an attorney with the firm of Steel, Hector and Davis, who was instrumental in bringing LRCA to Miami and helped create a pro bono program that provides legal services to abused and neglected children. Andrea Braverman, Continental’s Associate General Counsel, had previously been honored with the John Edward Smith award for her work with Lawyers for Children.

Founded in 1990, The Continental Group’s corporate headquarters is located in Hollywood, Fla. It also has regional offices in Kendall, West Palm Beach, Orlando, St. Petersburg and Jacksonville. The company is the largest manager of multifamily rental communities and condominium and homeowner associations in the state, and one of South Florida’s leading private sector employers. Today, The Continental Group manages and maintains more than 1,300 condominium and homeowner associations in Florida, representing over 310,000 residential units.
