The Continental Group Appoints Christopher L. Pappas as President of its Broward County Division

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. – (March 12, 2010) – The Continental Group, the largest property management company in Florida, announced that it has named Christopher L. Pappas as President of its Broward County division which also oversees Northeast Miami-Dade County.

Pappas joined Continental more than ten years ago as a Property Manager for Portofino Towers and worked his way up by focusing on improving the client experience for the company. After supervising the opening of several new high-rise projects, Pappas took on a number of existing associations to complete his portfolio as District Manager and was asked to assist in various developer consulting opportunities. Pappas has since been responsible for growing the high-rise segment in the Palm Beach and Orlando markets .

In his new role, Pappas will oversee the property management services for a wide array of residential developments, including condominium hi-rises, single-family developments and hotel-condominiums.

“Christopher’s knowledge of property management, his understanding of the Broward community, his proven track record, and strong management skills make him the perfect leader for this important division,” said Tom Roses, President of The Continental Group. “Considering that Christopher started the Broward region for us and helped grow our Fort Lauderdale high-rise portfolio, we know that our customers will be thrilled to have him back.”

Pappas will focus on increased training, enhancing customer service and delivering the personal touch that will create the utmost in positive client experience.

“There’s a sense of coming back home and I’ve been getting an extremely warm return reception from all of our customers, whether they’re in Aventura or downtown Fort Lauderdale,” said Pappas. “It’s exciting to get back to working with our Broward and North Dade communities and ensuring that they receive the ultimate level of service and attention that they expect with The Continental Group.”
